Ice Cream Social July 3rd, 6-9 p.m.

We will be inside and in front of the community room at the park, and will be selling ice cream, cookies, brownies, and other such treats (no cake or pie this year).

If you can help that day, or you want to donate treats that can be sold in small baggies, please call Penny Huber, 931-6420. The museum will also be open, so please stop in. Our current featured exhibit is on the 1950s.

We're also open to the public again in general, though we have decided to cut down on our open hours. There will be someone at the tollhouse between 9 and 11 a.m. many, but not all, Saturdays. There might also be someone there on Tuesday mornings 9-11, but it will be hit or miss.

Our monthly open houses will be replaced by four open houses per year: one in the spring, one July 3rd, one in the fall, and our Holiday Open House in December. Dates and times will be announced. Masks will not be required in the museum for those who are vaccinated.

Please note the changes to our hours of operation:

The Mt. Healthy Historical Society Museum is open most Saturday mornings, 9-11, and by appointment.

Our new photo page

We now have a page where we can display some of our collection photos. If you go to our website, then to the News and Events page, there's a link to our new Flickr page. Or you can go directly to the Flickr page at

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/mthealthyhistory/>

This will allow anyone, anywhere, to see some highlights of our collection while allowing the actual artifacts to stay safely in storage.

Some Mt. Healthy artifacts

Some of you may remember these business names. Above left, a sports jersey sponsored by Holzhauser's department store and above right an ashtray from Lou's Parkview Market.

Remember: July is membership dues month. If you haven't done so already, please send in your dues. You may mail a check for $10 to the museum, bring it to our monthly meeting, slip it into the mail slot at the tollhouse, or use PayPal on our website.

Thank you for your continued support!

Our thanks to our business members.
